

I would reccomend that the FCC NOT implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. The exisiting Indiana Telephone Privacy law has improved my family time by lessening the quantity of unwanted telephone calls to my residence. Not unlike e-mail spam and unsolicited Fax transmissions, I view these mass telephone advertising solicitations as a violation of my personal privacy.